

Question36 on the Nature of Consciousness

The Circle of Truth

STATEMENT	ANSWER	LEVEL* OF TRUTH
-----------	--------	-----------------------

The highest frequencies in this Universe are at 50,000 and the highest frequency of included worlds is 25,000

Consciousness is All	yes	infinity
A portion of Consciousness is what we call manifest Consciousness, or what we call "form".	yes	1 trillion
One portion of this manifest Consciousness is what scientists call "dark energy".	yes	50,000
At a lower frequency is that which scientists call "dark matter"	yes	40,000
This universe contains unmanifest Consciousness	no
The beginning of this universe is what scientists call the "Big Bang"	yes	50,000
The Big Bang was the initial conversion of unmanifest Consciousness into manifest consciousness	yes	50,000
In the conversion, as the unmanifest popped into being as manifest, it took on specific characteristics	yes	50,000
These characteristics determined the forms that any specific part of material Consciousness would initially take on	yes	50,000
These forms were capable of combining with other forms,	yes	50,000
Which in turn would combine with additional forms, giving birth to artifacts which could replicate	yes	50,000

As the initial forms continued to combine into more highly developed forms which could replicate, there began an evolution of these developed forms	yes	50,000
All things, or objects in this evolution are like parts in a play	yes	100
That includes, rocks, fish, reptiles and mammals	yes	100
This evolution into higher and higher forms of consciousness in this Universe led to the creation of Homo-Sapiens on Earth	yes	1,000
It also led, more recently to the evolution of Homo-Spiritus	yes	25,000
All parts in this "play" can be experienced by higher frequency forms of Consciousness which are attached to a dimension, which may influence the play but are not part of the play	yes	100,000
One form of these less manifest/higher frequency forms of Consciousness are what Homo-Sapiens has previously termed "the soul".	yes	100,000
The soul can also be called an "Experiencer"	yes	100,000
There are several levels of experiencers	yes	500,000
The lower level Experiencer, or Soul, is attached to the dimension containing the form they are to experience	yes	100,000
The frequency of the Dimension = -50,000 through +50,000	yes	50,000
The frequency of the Souls = -100,000 through +100,000	yes	100,000
The Level of Consciousness, or frequency of the soul we perceive as experiencing Jesus Christ is +96,000	yes	100,000
Rocks may be experienced by a lower level Experiencer if there is a need	yes	100,000
The experiences of fish and mammals may be experienced by a Experiencer and passed on to the unmanifest	yes	100,000

This Universe, this particular "play", is not the only play in existence	yes	50,000
There are more than a trillion "plays" or universes in existence ranging from frequencies of -1,000,000 through 1,000,000	yes	1 million
Many of these universes are inconceivable to us because of the characteristics that their creator had designed for them	yes	1 million
The higher level Experiencer records "experiences" of the manifest forms of this universe and passes the information on to forms living at a higher frequency	yes	500,000
To allow Consciousness to experience ALL possibilities	yes	infinity
For the most part, a higher level Experiencer remains in a particular play/universe until the creator assigns him to a different Universe	yes	1 million
The Experiencer accumulates Karma, positive or negative	yes	500,000
A higher level Experiencer may experience many lower level Experiencers within many Universes, each with their own characteristics,	yes	1 million
The evolution of a particular Experiencer within a specific universe does not depend upon the time characteristic of that universe	yes	infinity
A progression of lives experienced in this universe by a particular Experiencer is not based on time	yes	50,000
All parts of the play are available to the Experiencer	yes	100,000
The play can be entered at any point which coincides with the life to be experienced	yes	50,000
Experiencers experiencing this universe, may enter the play by experiencing inert matter	yes	50,000

The play is experienced in an order unique to the development of that Experiencer	yes	50,000
As a rule, the play is experienced again and again	yes	50,000
Until the Experiencer shows an inclination to experience a very different universe	yes	100,000
This play, or universe that we are experiencing is based on the positive evolution of negative and/or positive frequencies	yes	50,000
The human concept of "Hell" is a separate form of play, or universe, based on an evolution in negative frequencies	yes	-50,000
Each is a separate Universe, with it's own play, it's own evolution	yes	-50,000
Within this Universe, this play, there are many levels of dimensions to be experienced	yes	50,000
The Experiencers which experience this Question/Answer paper are in one particular level of dimensions within this universe, or play	yes	25,000
There are dimensions in this play with frequency ranges lower than this one	yes	1,000
There are dimensions in this play with frequency ranges higher than this one	yes	25,000
When an Experiencer clears enough negative energies, it moves on to the next level	yes	500,000
Where it begins to experience higher level "plays"	yes	1 million
Homo-Sapiens is capable of that level of frequencies	no
Homo-Spiritus is capable of that level of Frequencies	no
Homo-Sapiens and Homo-Spiritus are on different levels of dimensions	yes	25,000

An Experiencer experiencing Homo-Sapiens may experience Homo-Spiritus in the next life to be experienced	yes	25,000
Or, the reverse	yes	25,000
The difference between the two roles is that Homo-Spiritus has more freedom of Choice	yes	25,000
The level at which Homo-Spiritus lives, is the level at which the choice to evolve using primarily creative or destructive frequencies is made	yes	25,000
<hr/>
When evolution of an Experiencer has brought them to the highest level they can experience, that Experiencer is still able to live out their existence at their own level	yes	100,000
Higher level Experiencers have frequencies beyond 100,000	yes	500,000
They experience lower level Experiencers	yes	500,000
All Experiencers are distinguishable as a distinctness within Consciousness	yes	500,000
At some point, some distinctness within Consciousness may choose to create a new play	yes	1 billion
